SUGGESTED REVISIONS IN H.R. 13303

Amend paragraph (a)(3) of the proposed section 552a to read:

"(3) maintain an accurate record of the names and addresses of all persons to whom any information contained in these records is divulged and the purposes for which divulgence was made, or if any record is divulged to another agency of the Government, maintain an accurate record of the organizational designation and address of the recipient office and the purposes for which divulgence was made;"

Amend paragraph (a)(4) of the proposed section 552a to read as follows:

"(4) permit any person to inspect his own record (except any record or portion thereof which pertains to another person) and have copies thereof made at his expense, which in no event shall be greater than the cost to the agency of making copies;"

Amend the proposed section 552a by deleting paragraphs (a)(5) and (a)(6); and substituting the following:

"(5) maintain information of any kind in any record with that accuracy, completeness, timeliness, and pertinence as is necessary to assure accuracy and fairness in any determination relating to the person to whom the record pertains which may be made by the agency on the basis of the information, and whenever the agency corrects or removes erroneous information about a person in a record, notify all agencies and persons to whom the erroneous information has been previously transferred or disclosed from the record of its correction or removal;

(6) if a person disputes the completeness or accuracy of any information in his file, within a reasonable period of time, review the record and

(A) if the review so indicates correct or augment the record as appropriate, or

(B) if the accuracy or completeness continues to be in dispute, and unless there is reasonable grounds to believe that the dispute is frivolous or irrelevant, permit the subject of the record to file a statement setting forth the nature of the dispute, and in any subsequent report containing the information in question, clearly note that it is disputed by the person."

Amend subsection (b) of the proposed section 552a by adding new paragraphs (3) and (4) to read as follows:

"(3) maintained for purposes related to Government employment;

or

(4) investigative files compiled for the purpose of determining eligibility for Federal employment, military service, or access to classified information."
